TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Dear Customer,

We have pleasure in confirming that HIGHLUBE FLUID ENGINEERING Pty Ltd is the accredited Master Distributor for BIJUR DELIMON group products and as such has the full support of BIJUR DELIMON in the Australian and New Zealand markets.

HIGHLUBE FLUID ENGINEERING Pty Ltd has the technical expertise and capacity to support our Australian and New Zealand customers both commercially and technically (including installation and repairs). This and the expertise in Total Lubrication Management make them an ideal partner for our customers.

On behalf of our group companies BIJUR, DELIMON, FARVAL, LUBESITE and DELIMON – DENCO LUBRICATION (ex DENCO) we thank you for your loyalty to our products and assure you of our ongoing commitment to the Australian and New Zealand markets.

Yours Faithfully,

John Pearce
Group Commercial Director
